

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 155 of Article 77 of the Annotated Code of the Public General Laws of Maryland, Edition of 1924, entitled "Public Education," sub-title "The State Normal Schools," be, and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

155. There shall be maintained at each white State normal school courses of study designed for the preparation of teachers for the elementary schools, and requiring for graduation a total of not less than three years' work. Said courses of study may include specialized instruction in the practical arts, in public school music, and in such other special fields as may be determined by the State Board of Education on recommendation of the State Superintendent of Schools. Graduation from a standard four-year high school course, or equivalent preparation, shall be required for admission to such courses.

SEC. 2. And be it further enacted, That this Act shall take effect on June 1st, 1931.

Approved April 6, 1931.

CHAPTER 164.

AN ACT to repeal and re-enact, with amendments, Section 46 of Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Frederick County," sub-title "Brunswick," sub-heading "Taxing Power," authorizing an increase in the tax rate of the town of Brunswick.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Section 46 of Article 11 of the Code of Public Local Laws of Maryland (1930 Edition), title "Frederick County," sub-title "Brunswick," sub-heading "Taxing Power," be and the same is hereby repealed and re-enacted, with amendments, to read as follows:

46. The Mayor and Council, whenever they think the public interests require it, may cause an assessment to be made of all real and personal property within the corporate limits of said town, subject to assessment for state and county taxes, and
